MRS SIMPSON'S NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents and friends,

It has been a busy (and rather warm) week at IJS as we continue with our super Summer Term celebrations. From the Showcase performances for each year group and our Lovell House Sports Day, we really have been kept busy this week with lots of fun. From mini elections to a who's who in Norse Mythology, parents and teachers have been treated this week as the children have summarised their learning from this year.

A true highlight for me has been the Lovell House Sports Day, held at the Junior School site. Our littlest learners jumped, threw and ran for gold and they were ably supported by a team of Sixth Formers. Something that always strikes me as very special about Nottingham High School is the way in which opportunities for interaction between year groups is facilitated, and this is an ongoing area of growth for us. To see our Sixth Formers showcase their communication, leadership and empathy skills with our Lovell children was an utter joy. The Lovell children stood, so in awe of these Sixth Form Giants, eager to impress and shine as the sporting superstars they truly are. One Lovell child told me "Mrs Simpson, I want to be just like her when I am big," and if there were ever an advert for fostering the relationship between our oldest and youngest pupils, that must surely be it. I should say also that the Sixth Formers were bowled over by the energy of our pupils, who could jump higher, run faster, and throw further than they had ever expected. I suppose the message there is that nobody should ever underestimate a Nottinghamian.

I hope that you all continue to enjoy our end of term festivities and I wish you a sunny and pleasant weekend with your families. To our Junior School children and families, I shall see you at Sports Day!

With all best wishes,

Mrs Simpson

Visiting Poet: Ben Macpherson

On Monday 1st July, Ben Macpherson will be visiting our school. Ben is a local performance poet, author and playwright. He's a big name on the local Arts scene and is one of the organisers of Nottingham Poetry Festival. He has performed across the country, as well as on BBC radio. Much of his previous work in schools has been on behalf of UNESCO, with Nottingham as one of UNESCO's City of Literature. In a nutshell, he's rather fab and a very nice chap! If you'd like to find out more, do check out his website: <https://benmacpherson.co.uk/>.

If they wish to, Junior School pupils will be able to buy a copy of Ben's book. Serious Nonsense was reviewed by Michael Rosen, who said it is, "full of humour and drive." The book will be available at the reduced price of £7.50. Any Junior School pupil who wishes to purchase a copy should please bring £7.50 with them on Monday.

We are excited to announce the launch of the Junior School Reading Olympics!

How it works...

- Everyone will be given a pack that explains how it works to take home over summer.
- You can work towards four levels: Olympian, Bronze, Silver and Gold.
- You must read a set number of books per level and complete a reading challenge for each book.
- You can present your reading challenges in any way that you like.
- Hand them in to Mrs Dunn or Miss Griffiths in September.
- Medal awards ceremony after the Summer holidays, with real medals!!
- Projects will be used to make a display in September.

Full details will be in the pack sent home next week, but if you have any further questions, please do get in touch with Mrs Dunn.
